Moment Solomon

Art Curator · Writer · Founder, Studio Acquisitions

momentsolomon@gmail.com (334) 718-2410 Chicago IL / Remote

Independent Curatorial Practice

Studio Acquisitions | Founder & Art Curator 2026 – Present

Independent Practice, Remote

- Founded an independent curatorial and acquisition practice spanning fine art, vintage fashion, and jewelry with private sourcing and curatorial consultations as core services
- Sources, acquires, and curates small collections (3–5 items) of fine art, jewelry, and object acquisition; developed through object research, 10+ market comparisons per item, and 200-word minimum collection narratives
- Takes on consultation clients through writings concerning taste, style, and the relationship between curatorial perspective and acquisition; total body of public work spanning over 134k views across platforms
- Conducts independent market research across independent galleries, auction and resale markets, vintage dealers, and private sellers

Berkshire Museum | Development Associate March 2026 – May 2026

Pittsfield MA

- Supported art fundraising revenue through cross-departmental coordination with 3 curatorial, collection, and marketing teams, as well as individual donor relationship building, event production, and community outreach; handled sensitive collections and translated exhibits for marketing and capital campaign materials
- Researched and benchmarked 15 peer cultural institutions to develop museum facility-rental policy; developed and launched a new museum volunteer program through outreach with 5+ regional peers and volunteer organizations
- Documented data for and drafted institutional correspondence via email campaigns and letters to 35 civic and state leaders for Grand Reopening Celebration
- Presented event plans, calendars, and organizational infrastructure plans to Board of Trustees and museum executive leadership

Education

Williams College 2025

Williamstown, MA

Bachelor of Arts in History

QuestBridge Match Scholar and Recipient

Selected Study in Art & Visual Culture

AFR 364, Black Political Thought Spring 2023–2024

- Completed research examining the ways in which Black art has served political expression, at the intersection of Black political thought and art history

ARTS 100, Drawing I Fall 2022

- Studio artwork featured in The Big Art Show, as part of Williams College studio-art coursework

Additional Relevant Courses

- HIST 321, Manga & Anime Spring 2023–2024
- ENGL 244T, Interpreting Film Fall 2021

Selected Writing & Research

Art History/Black Political Thought

- Researched and documented mandatory minimums guidelines across the United States to analyze the correlation between sentencing policy and incarceration rates within marginalized communities; developed through primary interviews, audio-visual editing in a 40-minute podcast
- Wrote weekly essays over the course of a semester on topics surrounding political incarceration and revolutionary action through comparative literary analysis of autobiographical writings and literary fiction

Independent Writer — January 2024 – Present

Remote

- Created, drafted, and organized multiple long-form writing projects exceeding 190,000 words across projects, and 90,000+ words for the largest individual project; maintained a draft calendar and tracking system to coordinate development of each project
- Tracked and evaluated KPIs through the collection, analysis, and incorporation of qualitative and quantitative user feedback using 700+ site-specific metrics to assess implementation of audience retention plans

Selected Performing Arts & Cultural Engagement

NBC (Nothing But Cuties) | Secretary — January 2024 – June 2025

- Served on and managed an 8-member leadership board coordinating cultural programming, communications, events, and 4 performances in a given semester
- Produced 50+ event communications via graphic design, in order to support audience development; resulted in several max-capacity performances
- Supported event planning and execution for recurring performances and cultural programming through cross-organizational infrastructure and outreach
- Studio and independent Hip Hop dance from age of 3, with ongoing engagement in performance and artistic practice

Skills & Areas of Practice

Curatorial: Art and object sourcing; collection development; visual research; secondary-market research; aesthetic analysis; acquisition research

Research & Writing: Archival/historical research; long-form writing; cultural analysis; qualitative research; interviewing

Museum & Arts Administration: Institutional research; event production; community engagement; stakeholder relations

Studio Practice: Drawing; charcoal & graphite

Language: Chinese, Limited working proficiency